

MARCH 8TH ACTIVITIES / ACTIONS

9:15 – 10:00

❖ WELLNESS GOOD MORNING – INTENSATI TRAINING

Natalia Mehlman-Petrzela | Assistant Professor of History, NSSR
University Center, 63 5th Ave, Fitness Studio, Room L205

Let's kick-start the day activating our mind and body with a class of Intensati!

10:00 – 12:00

❖ WELLNESS GOOD MORNING – SELF DEFENSE

Ebba Boye | Economics PhD Student, NSSR
University Center, 63 5th Ave, Fitness Studio, Room L205

This is a self-defense training only for people who identify as women.

❖ INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY OF ACTION AT THE GRADUATE CENTER – SIGN MAKING

Graduate Center PSC
Graduate Center Cafeteria, 365 5th Ave

Wear RED! We fight for an end to gender violence, especially towards working women, trans women, and women of color. Reproductive justice, labor rights, and environmental justice for all. Full social provisioning. An anti-racist, anti-imperialist, all-inclusive feminism.

❖ HOW TO ORGANIZE AT WORK: WOMEN'S STRIKE, MAY DAY, & BEYOND

Labor Group, Women's Strike NYC
Event Café at University Center, 63 5th Ave

Join us for an open conversation and planning about organizing in our workspaces.

❖ FEMME IN FILM – INTERACTIVE TEACH-IN WORKSHOP

Alana Zonan | Film-maker producing short film highlighting voices of fellow women & what motivates them to fight today
University Center, 63 5th Ave, Room 514

In this International Women's Day be heard and learn about women in film and find your voice at this interactive Teach-In! So often women are seen and not heard. How many women can you picture in films and then how many of these women can you quote? In this workshop we'll talk about women who have made an impact in film, how we can progress in the male-dominated entertainment industry, participate in a writing exercise, and then turn the camera on ourselves! I hope you will join me in this thought-provoking and motivating discussion as we women continue to make history.

10:00 – 2:00

❖ GETTING ARTSY WITH PARSONS STUDENTS & FACULTY

Anke Gruendel | Politics PhD Student, NSSR; Professor, Parsons
University Center, 63 5th Ave, Lobby and Café

Join Parsons students and faculty for some fabulous artsy activities of sign making using many different techniques. Bring you inner artist with you and help us make beautiful and creative signs for the rally!

❖ INTRO TO FEMINIST THOUGHT & ACTION ABOUT VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

Ann Snitow | Senior Lecturer in Liberal Studies & Associate Professor of Literature, NSSR
University Center, 63 5th Ave, Room L104

We'll be discussing and looking at two very popular comic books about acid throwing in India. Our visitors (below) will discuss the kinds of political activism in which they are engaged, and we will look at images from the two brilliant Priya comic books.

Monica Singh | M.A. in Fashion Design, Parsons

Singh is a motivational speaker, humanitarian, and well-known social activist for Violence Against Women at UN. She is an organizer confronting men's violence, particularly incidences of acid throwing in India.

Ram Devineni | filmmaker, publisher, and founder of Rattapallax films and magazine

Devineni is the producer and co-creator of two graphic novels – Priya's Shakti and Priya's Mirror – that popularize the feminist response to these terrifying attacks.

12:00 – 1:30

❖ KNOW YOUR RIGHTS WORKSHOP

Suzanne Adely & Lamis Deek | National Lawyers Guild
University Center, 63 5th Ave, Room L102

Legal observers play a crucial role monitoring and reporting on police behavior at demonstrations and other protest events by protecting and asserting civil and political rights. The National Lawyers Guild (NLG) Legal Observer program is part of a comprehensive system of legal support designed to enable people to express their political views as fully as possible without unconstitutional disruption or interference by the police and with the fewest possible consequences from the criminal justice system.

12:30 – 1:30

❖ INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY OF ACTION AT THE GRADUATE CENTER – RALLY

Graduate Center PSC

Graduate Center Front Steps, 365 5th Ave

Please let us know if you would like to speak! Wear RED!

❖ PRATT RECOGNIZES WOMEN'S LABOR OF PAST & PRESENT

Darini Nicholas | Adjunct Instructor at Pratt

Pratt Brooklyn Campus, 200 Willoughby Ave, near The Clock

Our solidarity action is focusing on "the celebration of the women seen and unseen in our past and present who have paved the path for us, the women of today." We will be writing notes to thank and recognize these pioneering women and the women workers of Pratt who make our lives at Pratt easier. We will write notes on stickers to stick on our jackets, back packs or wherever to bring public awareness to women's wage labor and struggles. We will wear red and pass out red paper rose boutonnieres.

1:00 – 3:00

❖ DAYS UNDER TRUMP: HOW DO YOU SEE YOURSELF AS A WOMAN IN THE CURRENT POLITICAL CONTEXT?

Lucia Nader | Brazilian Activist & Human Rights Researcher

University Center, 63 5th Ave, Lobby

Join us and tell your story! We are making a photography project about the days under Trump, and women's voices must be heard.

1:30 – 3:00

❖ INTERSECTIONAL FEMINIST PERSPECTIVES

2:00 – 4:00

❖ FLYERING THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Julia Ott | Associate Professor of History, NSSR
University Center, 63 5th Ave, Lobby

The New School community (students, faculty, staff) will come together to flyer & invite people to join the rally. We will meet in Univ. Center lobby & walk together through the neighborhood on our way to the rally.

❖ I SAW THE SIGN – INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY SIGN-MAKING PARTY

Anti-fa-losophy Group, NSSR
Courtyard, 66 W 12th St

Join us for an afternoon of solidarity and sign-making as we gear up for the International Women's Strike rally at Washington Square Park at 4:00! Come by, make conversation, make a sign, maybe even learn a thing. Some poster board and markers will be provided, but please bring more if you have them!

3:00 – 3:45

❖ INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY – RALLY AND WALKOUT AT LOW

Columbia Against Trump
Low Memorial Library, W 16th St between Broadway & Amsterdam

We believe that in order to defend women's rights, we need an actively fighting women's movement. We must put in the work to build a feminism for the 99% in the wake of the failures of corporate feminism. Endorsed by: Graduate Workers of Columbia, Student-Worker Solidarity, Barnard-Columbia Socialists (ISO), Minorities And Philosophy Columbia Chapter, Columbia Students for Human Rights.

3:00 – 4:00

❖ SANCTUARY CAMPUS CAMPAIGN MEETING & PLANNING

Sanctuary Campus Cross-Campus Coalition
Courtyard, 66 W 12th St

Students from The New School, NYU, Columbia, and CUNY involved in the Sanctuary Campus Campaign will meet and strategize about creating a cross-campus effort to pressure school administrations. Join us to learn more about it and to help us to create Sanctuary Campus in NYC.

❖ INTERSECTIONAL WOMEN'S DAY SPEAKOUT

International Socialist Organization, NYU
Washington Square Park, Fountain

The Women's Strike on March 8th promises to be another major event in the developing resistance to Trump. We hope to use this opportunity to build collaboration and solidarity between student groups working on different progressive causes. As such, we are proposing a speakout before the rally at Washington Square. Afterwards, we can walk to the rally in Washington Square Park as a progressive NYU contingent! The speakout will be relatively informal – anyone who wants to will have an opportunity to address the crowd. Join us in building a bigger and better-organized left at NYU!
